

FAST University (FAST-NUCES) - Overview

FAST University, officially known as the National University of Computer and Emerging Sciences (FAST-NUCES), is one of Pakistan's leading institutions for computer science, engineering, and business education. Established: 1980 (as the Foundation for Advancement of Science and Technology - FAST)

University Status: 2000

Main Campuses: Islamabad, Lahore, Karachi, Peshawar, Chiniot-Faisalabad, and Multan.

Popular Programs: BS Computer Science BS Artificial Intelligence BS Software Engineering BS Data Science BS Cyber Security Electrical Engineering Business Administration (BBA) Why

Students Choose FAST: Strong reputation in Computer Science and Engineering. Excellent industry connections and job placements. Challenging academic environment. Active research and innovation culture. Admission Process: Admission is generally based on an entry test and academic performance. The university conducts admissions annually for undergraduate and graduate programs. Official Name: National University of Computer and Emerging Sciences (FAST-NUCES)